

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the parties shall retain joint legal custody of the minor children. The parties agree that joint legal custody entails the following:

Neither parent shall do anything which shall estrange the children from the other parent or impair the natural development of the children's love and respect for each of the parents, or disparage the other parent or undermine the parental authority or discipline of the other's household. Additionally, each parent shall instruct their respective family and friends that no disparaging remarks are to be made regarding the other parent in the presence of the children. Neither parent shall use contact with the children as a means of obtaining information about the other parent. The parents shall consult and cooperate with each other in substantial questions relating to religious upbringing, educational programs, significant changes in social environment, and health care of the children.

The parents shall have access to medical and school records pertaining to the children and shall jointly consult, when possible, with any and all professionals involved with the children.

All schools, health care providers, day care providers, and counselors shall be, when possible, selected by the parties jointly. In the event that the parties cannot agree to the selection of a school, the children shall be maintained in the present school pending mediation and/or further Order of the Court.

Each parent shall be empowered to obtain emergency health care for the children without the consent of the other parent. Each parent shall notify the other parent as soon as reasonably possible of any illness requiring medical attention, or any emergency involving the children.

Each parent shall provide the other parent, upon receipt, information concerning the well-being of the children, including, but not limited to, copies of report cards; school meeting notices; vacation schedules; class programs; requests for conferences; results of standardized or diagnostic tests; notice of activities involving the children; samples of school work; order forms for school pictures; and all communications from health care providers. The parents shall also exchange the names, addresses and telephone numbers of all schools, health care providers, regular day care providers, and counselors who have contact with their children.

Each parent shall provide the other parent, upon receipt, information concerning school, athletic, church, and social events in which the children participates. Both parents may participate in activities for the children, such as open house, attendance at an athletic event, etc.

Each parent shall provide the other parent with the address and telephone number at which the minor children reside, and shall notify the other parent within five (5) days prior to any change of address and provide the telephone number as soon as it is assigned.

Each parent shall provide the other parent with a travel itinerary and, whenever reasonably possible, telephone numbers at which the children can be reached whenever the children will be away from the parent's home for any period in excess of two days.

Each parent shall be entitled to reasonable telephone communication with the children. Each parent is restrained from unreasonably interfering with the children's right to privacy during such telephone conversations.

CHILD CUSTODY NOTICES

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the parties are subject to the provisions of NRS 125C.200 and NRS 200.359, which provide: "If custody has been established and the custodial parent or a parent having joint custody intends to move his residence to a place outside of this state and to take the child with him, he must, as soon as possible and before the planned move, attempt to obtain the written consent of the other parent to move the child from the state. If the noncustodial parent or other parent having joint custody refuses to give that consent, the parent planning the move shall, before he leaves the state with the child, petition the court for permission to move the child. The failure of a parent to comply with the provisions of this section may be considered as a factor if a change of custody is requested by the noncustodial parent or other parent having joint custody"; as well as NRS 125.510(6) which provides:
